Interest at the Postofles in Washington as second Tuesday, June 3, 1884.

THE National Republican Convention now in session at Chicago, starts off badly. The selection of Powell Clayton as temporary chairman was one unfit to be made. He was one of the most disreputable of the old carpet-baggers of the South, and in no way and at no time made for himself any other reputation than that of a mercenary and a brawler.

If this disgraceful commencement is to be followed by equally disgraceful work, the Grand Old Party might as well close Its doors.

THERE was a grand musical festival in Chicago last week. There is also some music in Chicago this week.

No one can doubt the fact that the Blaine men can make more noise than the adherents of any other candidate. GENERAL BUTLER, it is said, will not use his yacht this summer. It draws too much water for Salt Creek navigation. THE Arthur men figure 297 on the first ballot. The Blaine men's system of mathematics gives their leader 313 on the first

JUDGING from the latest dispatches from Chicago, a number of Presidential candidates have been wounded in the houses of their friends. CONGRESSMAN RUSSELL, of Massachu ssetts, who is one of the most useful Members of the House, announces that he will not be a candidate for re-election.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR is to be put in nom ination by Martin I. Townsend, of New York. Martin, like most of the Arthur delegates, is a Federal officeholder. Those who are not expect to be pretty soon.

THE editor of the Post has just discov. ered that ... Tilden's record on the tariff is that of a consistent Democrat. There are a great many other facts about Mr. Til-den and the Democratic party that the I out has got to learn yet.

THE most absurd thing of all at Chicago is the threat of the aldermen that they wil not allow the convention to be held in the Exposition building because they were not given front seats in the show. If they should attempt anything of the kind they ought to be given a private box in a place where the walking space is limited.

THE two figures that have so far cut the worst figure at Chicago are Senator Harrison and ex-Senator Clayton. The former went there for another man, and came on for himself. The latter went there for himself and the perquisites. He seems to have secured the perquisites. Perquisites are great things to the thrifty politician,

THE decision of the National Savings Bank to require the thirty days' notice, to which they are entitled under their char ter before paying claims of depositors, is eminently wise. Runs on banks are fraught with much danger always, and only serve to keep up excitement. The bank in question is sound and able to pay every dollar it owes, and could do it with out enforcing the thirty-day rule, but it has adopted the wisest course against any possible contingency.

THE Republican National Convention will begin business to-day. It is not probable that there will be any ballottag before to morrow, but the voting on the preliminary organization to-day may be an indication of the relative strength of the leading candidates.—
Republican this morning.

If Powell Clayton had not been selected as the temporary president of the convention, the preliminary skirmish might have furnished some idea of the final result. The promise of the portfolio of war or a foreign mission is a very tempting thing to a man of Clayton's calibre.

THE main hope of the Democratic leaders for success in the Presidential contest is that the Republicans may make a mistake at Cni-cago.— Daylon (Chito) Journal.

The first move made was a mistake When a party is forced to take such a man as Powell Clayton for temporary chairman of a National convention, it is certainly guilty of a mistake that the honest voters of the party will be very loth to forgive.

Senator McPherson's Firm Patis.

Senator McPherson's Virm Fatis.

New York Morning Journal.

The sudden dissolution of the well-known firm of Ocney & McPherson, the extensive cattle gealers of this city and Jorsey City, of which United States Senator John R. McPherson was one of the general partners, was announced Raturday and caused much surprise. The firm had offices at No. 61 College Piece. Mr. Coney wes the active partner of the firm. He was said to be a most reliable and capable man, was very well known to the trade and was one of the oldest live atock salesmen in the city. His personal reputation was very good and his credit sellom questioned. In 1850 he was believed to be worth $250,000, but two years later his standing was reduced to $150,000. Mr. Coney became interested in a Virginia lumbering business to assist a relative, and by the death of fint relative Mr. Coney was compelled to assume most of the responsibility, and in consequence was compelled to use his individual credit. Mr. Daniel McPherson said thus the dissolution of the firm was due to Mr. Coney's troubles with parties to whom he had leaned large sums, and which he was unable to collect. It was learned that Senstor McPherson's reasons for withdrawing from the firm were purely personal. It did not care to be mixed up with the firm's complications.

Games Here and Elsewhere Yesterday.
The third game between the Washington and Cincinnatic yesterday was one of the most stubbornly contested and scientific games that has been played here this eason. Neither side scored until the seventh inning, when the visiters made two runs by errors made by Barr and Humphries. The visitors added another run to their score in the eighth inning. The and Humphries. The visitors added another run to their score in the eighth inning. The feature of the game was the playing of Hanna, the little catcher of the home club. He put out elater men, four of whom he threw out at second. The score stood 3 to 0 in favor of the visitors. Errors, Washingtons, 8; Cincinnaits, 0. Ease hits, 4 and 8, respectively.

The game between the Nationals and the Reystones was attended by about 700 persons. The contest resulted in a victory for the visitors by a soore of 8 to 3.

The Dairymen's Association. The Washington Dairymen a Association, consisting of about sixty dairymen and milk dealers, assembled at Cosmopolitan Hall yesterday and discussed the surplus milk question. The establishment of an agency in Washington for the sale of surplus milk was advocated by Mr. William T. Bunney. He craimed that this surplus if not sold could be utilized in making butter and cheese. Mr. Frank Ward said he had the necessary plant which was at the disposal of the producers, He did not believe in a union of producers and dealers because that had already been tried and tailed. He said first-class milk always finds a ready sale here, but milk for butter and cheese would sell as low as six coats per gallon. J. M. Gibbs, of Mount Vernon, salvocated the keeping back of a surplus to keep up the prices. The vote was taken for an expression of opinion as to whether it was desirable to form a sectivy of producers and dealers, and it was decided to be not desirable. Washington Dairymen's Association,

The Murder Epidemic.

"How do you account for the unusual sloge of murders and homicides from which the city has suffered in the past few months?" inquired a Chitric reporter of Major Dye this atternoon, "I don't pretend to account for it," replied the officer. "It is one of those things that cannot be accounted for. It is a singular fact that murders, raper, fires, ac., come by slegges. Until a few months ago we had no murders or homicides for quite a while, and in the past few months we have had five, the Feter Washington murder at the B. & P. depot, the Langaton murder, the Karcher murder, the Carpenter murder and the Ross-Tonney murder the other night, four out of five of which were colored."

The Growlers' Excursion. The Growlers," Washington Lodge, No. 2, will sive a select moonlight excursion to Marshall Hall, on Friday evening, June 6, 1884, on the steamer W. W. Corforna, Captain Blage. The steamer will leave the whart at 6:30 sharp, returning at 12. The Apollo Club will furnish the vocal and Protessor Schroder the orchestral music.

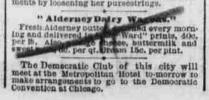

Bars and Lager Prohibited.

No "bars," no "lager beer" will be permitted at Catholic picnics or excursions in the Diocese of Albany, N. Y. The bishop, Dr. McNerny, says: "Our object is to discontinue the practice of farming out the bar, as has lately been the custom. A picnic or excursion boat with an open bar attached is generally a scene of more or less draukenness and discrete, and the decree is issued to prayent trouble. We are trying to discourage the habit of drinking measures to lessen temptation to drink, Or course there are those who will have their drink in spite or all that can be done, and such persons attend planies and excursions with bottles or finsks in their pockets, and that can't be very well prevented. But open bars can be," This decree will be delivered to the priests without delay.

The Scandal of Two Cauris. Bars and Lager Prohibited.

The Scandal of Two Courts.

Mme, Kolemine is ettill in Berlin, All attempts thus far toget her to quietly co away and forget her royal husband have fatled, the will listen to nothing short of a full recognition of her marital righte, and insists that sho shall be either accepted as a wife and maintained as one or placed fairly before the world in a divorce auti. In reference to the latter proposition, it is stated on good authority that Mme. Kolemine has effered to facilitate, as far as may be consistent with her claims, a suit for a separation if the is guaranteed an antity of 210,000. This proposal is probably made in the hope that Queen Victoria will take pity an her indiscrete won-in-law and help the Grand Duke out of his present entanglements by loosening her pursestrings.
